Policy on Providing Financial Support to Teacher and Student

Introduction :-

The policy on providing financial support to teachers and students can vary widely depending on the specific institution, organization, or government agency involved. However, I can provide a general overview of some common practices and considerations for providing financial support to teachers and students.

Scope of the policy :-

1. Financial support to organize the innovative, extension and research activities.
2. Support for the participation in innovative, extension and research activities organized by the other institution.
3. Organizing session to orient staff and students for innovative, extension and research activities.

Objectives :-

1. To encourage staff and student to organize innovative, extension and research activities.
2. To motivate and give incentive to staff and students to participate in innovative, extension and research activities.
3. To conduct session for staff and student to guide and give information about innovative, extension and research activities.
4. To recommend the management for making the budgetary provision for financial assistance for staff and students for innovative, extension and research activities.
